

SDFAS Grandparents & Special Friends Day 2020-2021

On November 25th in the morning (Thanksgiving minimum day), we will celebrate multi-generational connections and invite grandparents to virtually participate in the classrooms and share experiences from their youth.

When?

November 25th in the morning

How?

Live session via Zoom (links will be send by teachers to registered grandparents)

Theme?

My life when I was your age.

No potluck.

Format by Division?

Preschool (Meet my grandparent by Zoom):

Grandparents will introduce themselves, say a few sentences about what they love to do with their grandchild and how it was when they were the same age as their grandchild today, and share pictures. Depending on attendance, 2 to 3 minutes should be a good time to give a chance to everyone to participate. The students will show their classroom, and sing a song.

PKO Vesna: 9 am - 9:15 am
PK1A Emilie: 9 am - 9:15 am
PK1B Gladys: 9 am - 9:15 am
PK1/PK2 Cindy: 10 am - 10:30 am
PK2A Gaelle: 9.30 am - 10:00 am
PK2B Stephanie: 9.15 am - 9:45 am
PK2C Pauline: 9.15 am - 9:45 am
KA Laurette/Michelle (during English class): 9.15 am - 9:45 am
KB Anne: 9:15 am - 9:45 am
DL Alexandra : 9 am - 9:30 am

Elementary (Tell us about your life when you were our age by Zoom):

The students and grandparents will prepare a presentation about the grandparents' life in elementary school (e.g. popular shows at the time, popular food,...). The students will present to the class and the presentations will be recorded and sent to the grandparents.

Schedule to follow (depending on number of participants).

Middle School (Tell us about the world when you were our age by Zoom):

We will ask grandparents to be part of our "Human Library". They will share with different groups of Middle School students an historical/important event that happened when they were in middle school and will answer their questions.

Grade 6: 9:15 am - 10:35 am
Grade 7: 10:15 am - 11:35 am
Grade 8: 10:40 am - 12 pm

Please share the grandparents' contact information here by November 13th. The teachers will send a personal invitation to their Zoom room to registered grandparents.
